General and Revenue Secretariat,

Dated, Bangalore, the 9th April 1927.

No.L. 314-21/LB 170-26-6

From

R.Ranga Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

General Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

The President,
District Board.

Sir,

At the meeting of the Deputy Commissioners and certain Heads of Departments held in February 1927 at -- Bangalore, it was brought to notice that some of the District Boards were under the impression that they could not under the existing rules sanction expenditure for sinking wells that supply the needs of single villages. In this connection I am directed to invite reference to clauses (d) and (n) of Section 45 and Section 65 of the District Board Regulation 1926, and to state that the District Boards are competent not only to construct and maintain wells affecting or serving different Village Panchayets, but can also contribute towards wells constructed by a single Village Panchayet for its own use.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

R. Ranga Rao

General Secretary to Government.
